Standards Committee

Date: 22 October 2015

Time: 5.30 pm

Present: Councillors Taylor (Chair), D Fouweather, J Guy, Hancock, John and Westwood

In Attendance: D Harries (Deputy Monitoring Officer – Torfaen County Borough Council) and K Peggington (Chair of Standards Committee – Torfaen County Borough Council)

1 Apologies for Absence

Councillor H Thomas, T Britton.

2 Declarations of Interest

None received.

3 Minutes of the Previous Meeting: 16 July 2015

The minutes of the meeting of 16 July 2015 were submitted.

Agreed:

That the minutes were accepted as a true record.

Matters Arising

Item 5 Complaints

The Monitoring Officer referred to a complaint which been received. At this stage it was confidential and may be reported back to the committee in due course.

Item 6 Register of Gifts and Hospitality

The reduction of the threshold of £25 was approved without debate by Council on 29 September 2015.

Item 11 Standards Committee Annual Report

Councillor Guy read out the annual report at Council in September, which was well received.

4 Chair's Announcements

The Chair referred to the Standards Conference which would be reported at the end of the meeting.

The Chair thanked Councillor Guy for presenting the Annual Report to Council on her behalf.

5 Ombudsman Annual Letter 2014/15

Consideration was given to a letter from the Ombudsman. Following the publication of his Annual Report for 2014/15, the Ombudsman had issued the Council with his Annual letter. The letter sets out information relating to the numbers of complaints of maladministration and misconduct which were referred to his office during this period relating to Newport City Council and its Councillors.

The Number of complaints received in Newport was below the Welsh average, in particular, serious complaints of maladministration. Most of the complaints received by the Ombudsman were discontinued or resolved.

There were no findings of maladministration or misconduct during 2014/15.

Members discussed the increase in numbers of complaints. There was a National trend as more people were exercising their right to complain; Newport was no different. Additionally, local authorities were making it easier for members of the public to complain, although in Newport's case, whilst the volume of complaints increased this mostly lead to a satisfactory outcome.

Agreed:

To note the report and the Ombudsman's Annual Letter.

6 Ombudsman Facts Sheet - Code of Conduct Complaints

The fact sheets explained the approach taken by the Ombudsman's staff when carrying out interviews with elected members who were subject to investigation under the Code of Conduct Complaints procedure.

Further information was available on the Ombudsman's website which explained the process in detail.

Agreed:

To note the Ombudsman Fact Sheet for information

7 Standards Committee Report - Forward Work Programme

Consideration was given to a report containing a draft Forward Programme for the next 12 months. Standards Committee were asked to approve the Work Programme, identify any further items of work that should be included and to prioritise specific items for review.

Members went through prioritising items for review as set out in a table in the report:

- Annual Report to Council. The report would be reviewed in September 2016.
- Dispensations. This would be reviewed in May 2016
- Local Resolution Protocol for Complaints. This would be put it in as a formal review in May 2016.
- Complaints of Misconduct. An annual summary would be undertaken in May 2016.
- Member Training and Development. The Welsh Government were considering updating the Code of Conduct, therefore this would be reviewed in January 2016.
- Ethical Standards would be reviewed in September 2016
- Review of Community Councils would be reported back in January 2016.
- Review of Councils Protocol. An original copy would be distributed to members and would be reviewed in May 2016.
- Review of Council Policies and Procedures relating to Ethical Standards. A review would take place in September 2016. Ethical training would be included in the on-going training assessment.

- Succession Planning. The terms of office were up for renewal, this would therefore be reviewed in May 2016. Advertisement to recruit new members would be displayed on Newport City Council's website as well as Newport Matters.

Members gave consideration to the Annual Report, attached to the Forward Work Programme.

It was noted that there was a typing error within the Annual Report, under Item 4 Helpful Information, 4.1 Can I attend the Meetings of the Democratic Services Committee, which should have read Standards Committee. Discussion ensued regarding the Democratic Services Committee and the Monitoring Officer reminded members that they were most welcome to observe a meeting if they so wished.

Discussion ensued regarding guidelines on the baseline for meeting costs were discussed under Annex A, Item 3 Representation. There was a capped contribution to legal costs which was less than the threshold set by the ombudsman. The Committee would have to look at each individual case on its own merit but it would still be subject to a maximum financial cap. It also depended on the outcome of a case. Finally, the committee would see all the paperwork and therefore be fully prepared long before the likely outcome was considered.

Agreed:

To approve the Forward Work Programme. Items were prioritised for review.

Any Other Business

The Chair provided feedback to members on the All Wales Standards Conference that took place in Cardiff on 20 October 2016.

It was considered to be one of the best and inclusive conferences attended where everyone felt they had a part to play. The speakers were excellent and the workshops informative. Papers on the conference were available on their website.

P Davies, Adjudicator Panel for Wales who was at the Conference looked at a review of all investigations being undertaken and there was a common theme which was a lack of training.

Standards Committees in other areas meeting regularly to discuss common issues and share good practice.

As a committee future discussion should include the review of some investigations it was generally felt that some members could be too close and partially clouded to issues put before the committee. Whilst this was not generally felt to be the case in Newport it would be important to get an overall view of members opinion. Members of the committee considered they had quite an independent way of thinking. If there was any concern, it might be that elected members were sitting in judgement of their peers. General discussion ensued and it was felt that it was a matter of conscience for the individual; a member could disqualify themselves if they thought that they were sitting in judgement of a peer.

A local resolution protocol for community councils was raised at the conference. Community Councils often felt removed or isolated and did not have a support mechanism in place, in particular those that did not subscribe to One Voice Wales. This was something that could not be imposed upon Community Councillors and would need to be a purely voluntary decision.

Finally, ethical standards around social media and dangers associated with it was raised. WLGA Guidance would be distributed to members electronically. General debate on the use of social media ensued and what was considered best practice.

Agreed:

That the Chair send a letter to Community Councils to enquire if they would like a local resolution protocol to be put in place.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT, WALES

The Local Authorities (Model Code of Conduct) (Wales) (Amendment) Order 2016

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends Schedule 1 to the Local Authorities (Model Code of Conduct) (Wales) Order 2008 (“the 2008 Order”) in which is set out a model code as regards the conduct which is expected of members and co-opted members of relevant authorities in Wales under section 50(2) of the Local Government Act 2000. Section 50(3) of that Act enables the Welsh Ministers to revise a model code which has been issued.

Relevant authorities in Wales for the purposes of this Order are: county councils, county borough councils, community councils, fire and rescue authorities and National Park authorities.

Article 2 of the Order amends the following paragraphs of the model code set out in the Schedule to the 2008 Order:

paragraph 1(1), by inserting a definition of “register of members’ interests”; paragraph 1(2), by inserting a definition of “proper officer” and providing clarification with regard to references to standards committees in relation to a community council;

paragraph 3(a), by omitting the reference to police authorities;

paragraph 6(1)(c), by removing the requirement for members to report potential breaches of their code of conduct to the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales;

paragraphs 11(4), 15(2), 16(2) and 17, by transferring some functions from monitoring officers to the proper officers of community councils; paragraph 12(2)(b)(iv), to reflect the new provisions contained in Part 8 of the Local Government (Wales) Measure 2011 in relation to allowances and payments;

paragraph 15(2), so that it is clear that any interest disclosed should be registered in the authority's register of members' interests, by giving notification to the monitoring officer, or, in relation to a community council, to the proper officer of that authority.

Article 2 of the Order omits paragraph 10(2)(b) of the model code set out in the Schedule to the 2008 Order. This clarifies that a member of a relevant authority is not to be regarded as having a personal interest in a matter when participating in, or making decisions on behalf of the authority simply for the reason that the business being considered at the meeting affects their ward.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT, WALES

The Local Government (Standards
Committees, Investigations,
Dispensations and Referral) (Wales)
(Amendment) Regulations 2016

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the regulations specified below to implement changes in local authorities with the aim of improving local democracy.

Regulation 2 amends the Standard Committees (Wales) Regulations 2001. It makes provision:

for local authorities to establish joint standards committees and the membership, remit and operation of such joint committees;

amending existing provisions relating to the length of the term of office of members of standards committees; to clarify that a relevant authority is exempt from making the report or recommendations of an investigation available for public inspection until the proceedings are concluded; and setting out the procedure that applies where an investigation of misconduct is transferred to the standards committee of another relevant authority.

Regulation 3 amends the Local Government Investigations (Functions of Monitoring Officers and Standards Committees) (Wales) Regulations 2001. It sets out:

details of the procedure for appealing against the decision of a standards committee and specifies that an appeal may only proceed if the President of the Adjudication Panel for Wales or a nominee considers that the appeal has a reasonable prospect of success; and the duties of a monitoring officer in relation to the operation and decisions of a joint committee.

Regulation 4 amends the Standards Committee (Grant of Dispensations) (Wales) Regulations 2001 to provide a procedure for a member's application for a dispensation to be referred to the standards committee of another authority for determination.

The detailed provisions are as follows—

Regulation 2

Joint Standards Committees

Part III of the Local Government Act 2000 (“the 2000 Act”) makes provision with respect to the conduct of local authority members and employees.

Section 53(1) of the 2000 Act requires every relevant authority in Wales, that is, a county or county borough council, fire and rescue authority and a National Park authority but not for this purpose a community council, to establish a standards committee which is to have the functions conferred on it by or under Part III of the 2000 Act.

The Local Government (Democracy) (Wales) Act 2013 (“the 2013 Act”) amended section 53 (1) of the 2000 Act to enable two or more relevant authorities to establish a joint standards committee.

Under section 53(11) of the 2000 Act, the National Assembly for Wales may by regulations make provision as to (among other things) the size, composition and proceedings of standards committees of relevant authorities in Wales including joint committees, and of any sub-committees established under section 56 of the 2000 Act. The functions of the National Assembly for Wales in this respect have since been transferred to the Welsh Ministers.

Regulation 2 amends the Standard Committees (Wales) Regulations 2001 to make provision for the appointment of community committee and independent members to a joint standards committee and also to limit the number of executive members of a joint standards committee. Further provision is made to ensure that every meeting of a joint standards committee is attended by a monitoring officer of one of the constituent relevant authorities. In addition, the constituent relevant authorities of a joint standards committee must agree which one of them will be responsible for preparing and sending their terms of reference to the Public Ombudsman for Wales.

Provision is made to specify that the length of the term of office of a local authority member of a standards committee is the period to the next ordinary local elections. The previous four year limitation has been removed.

Publication of Misconduct Reports

Section 51(1) of the 2000 Act imposes a duty upon all relevant authorities in Wales to adopt a code specifying the standards of conduct expected of their members and co-opted members.

Under Section 69 of the 2000 Act the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales may investigate any alleged breach by members or co-opted members (or former members or co-opted members) of the code of conduct of a relevant authority in Wales.

Where the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales ceases such an investigation before it is completed (under section 70(4) of the 2000 Act) the matter subject to the investigation may be referred to the monitoring officer of the relevant local authority.

Alternatively, where the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales determines (under section 71(2) of the 2000 Act) that it is appropriate for the matter may be referred to the monitoring officer of the relevant authority, the Ombudsman must produce a report on the outcome of the investigation and send it to the monitoring officer and the authority's Standards Committee.

Regulation 2 makes provision to exempt a standards committee or sub-committee from making a misconduct report or recommendations available for public inspection until proceedings under the Local Government Investigations (Functions of Monitoring Officers and Standards Committees) (Wales) Regulations 2001 are concluded. The Regulation also sets out the events that will signify the end of the proceedings and give rise to the obligation to publish the materials as soon as reasonably practicable.

Regulation 3

Section 73 of the 2000 Act enables the Welsh Ministers to make regulations specifying how matters referred to a monitoring officer and standards committee are to be dealt with. The Local Government Investigations (Functions of Monitoring Officers and Standards Committees) (Wales) Order 2001 sets out the responsibilities of the monitoring officer and the standards committee in relation an investigation, the production of a report and the outcome of an investigation.

Section 69 of the 2013 Act amended the regulation-making power in the in section 73 of the 2000 Act so that the Welsh Ministers may make provision enabling a monitoring officer or a standards committee to refer a report or recommendations relating to a misconduct investigation to another relevant authority's standards committee. Regulation 3 amends the Order to set out the procedure to be followed for such a referral.

Regulation 3 also amends the Order to modify and clarify the duties of a monitoring officer of a relevant authority where that relevant authority has established a joint standards committee.

In relation to the right of a member to appeal against the decision of a standards committee, Regulation 3 provides that an appeal may only proceed if the President of the Adjudication Panel for Wales or a nominee has first granted permission for the appeal to proceed. The procedure and timescales that apply to such an application are set out in detail in the Regulation.

Regulation 4

Regulation 4 amends the Standards Committee (Grant of Dispensations) (Wales) Regulations 2001 so that a monitoring officer or standards committee of a relevant authority may refer an application for dispensation to the standards committee of another relevant authority.

[A full regulatory impact assessment [has/has not] been produced for this instrument [to be completed].
