CLS 02/17

Library Strategy 2017-20

Options Considered/Reason for Decision

The Cabinet Member considered a report regarding the proposed submission of Library Strategy 2017-20.

The report set out a draft Library Strategy for the service over the next three years. The report reflected on the challenging context in which Libraries are being delivered while accepting the changing expectations and demands on the service.

The strategy set out a framework for meeting ongoing challenges while ensuring that the Library Service is sustainable and able to meet the needs of the City's residents

The proposed strategy has been informed by the statutory framework in which library services operated together with a number of other relevant local and national strategies.

Decision

To approve the proposed Library Strategy 2017– 2020 as a guiding principle for the delivery of the Library Service for the next three years.
