Welsh Government Green Paper: Strengthening Local Government

Options Considered/Reasons for Decision

The Green Paper 'Strengthening Local Government: Delivering for people' issued 20 March 2018 was the Welsh Government's statement of intent for a stronger, more empowered local government in Wales. The proposals in the document set out proposed changes to the delivery of local government services which would mean changes to the administrative and electoral boundary in Newport through a merger with Caerphilly County Borough.

The report outlined the proposed response to the consultation which must be submitted by 12 June 2018.

Decision

To endorse the proposed consultation response as set out in the report.
