Gambling Act 2005 – Statement of Principles

Options Considered/Reasons for Decision

The Gambling Act 2005 became fully implemented on 1 September 2007 and it created a new system of licensing and regulation for commercial gambling. It required the Council to prepare and publish a Statement of Principles for each successive period of three years, which outlined the principles that the Council would apply in exercising its functions as the Licensing Authority under the Act. The draft revisions to the Statement included in this report was produced in accordance with Regulations and the Gambling Commission's Guidance to Licensing Authorities. Statutory consultation must take place prior to the Statement of Principles being determined by full Council.

Decision

That the Cabinet Member approved the proposed amendments to the Council's Statement of Principles required under the Gambling Act 2005 and authorised the commencement of the required consultation process; to commence as soon as was practicable.

Consultation

Monitoring Officer, Head of Finance, Head of People & Business Change

All members were consulted and provided with an opportunity to comment. Any comments received and response thereafter are set out in the report.
