C&R 08/19

Street Naming and Numbering Policy

Options Considered/Reasons for Decision

The Council's Street Naming and Numbering policy was adopted in 2013 and although a number of minor amendments have been incorporated the policy remained largely unchanged since then. The introduction of the Welsh Language Standards, the Historic Environment (Wales) Act 2016 and the General Data Protection Regulations necessitated a review of the policy to ensure that the council continued to meet its obligations and compliance with statutory duties. It also provided an opportunity to undertake a wider review of the policy to ensure that it continues to meet requirements.

A formal, public consultation exercise was carried out seeking views on the revised policy. Overall, the responses were positive and supported the policy, attached as an appendix to this report

Decision

To approve and adopt the proposed amendments.
