Comments of Chief Financial Officer

There are no financial implications directly arising from this report.

Comments of Monitoring Officer

The appointment of individuals to serve on outside bodies is a Local Choice function under the Local Authorities (Executive Arrangements) (Functions and Responsibilities) (Wales) Regulations 2007. The Council has determined that responsibility for this function shall rest with Full Council unless delegated by the Council.

The new Welsh Government guidance provides that humanists (and other non-religious groups) can be appointed to SACRE as full voting members, provided the Council considers that their views are analogous to religious beliefs and that their views are reflective and representative of the wider community. SACRE have considered the request from the Humanist Association and are recommending that the current membership and constitution of the group is amended to include an additional place for a humanist representative.

APPENDIX 1

Newport SACRE

Purpose: Request for Council to increase Committee A(faith groups) membership of SACRE by one place.

Reasons: Newport SACRE prides itself on its inclusive nature and the range of diverse views that are represented on this committee. A member of the Humanist Association has written to SACRE seeking a place and this was supported by the SACRE committee. It is the Council that decides on the composition of the membership of SACRE and therefore SACRE is recommending to the Council that they consider this increase of membership of Committee A by one place to accommodate the Humanist request.

The arguments for inclusion of the Humanist UK Association (Wales) on SACRE would include

- 1. The letter from Kirsty Williams of May 2018 that to ensure compatibility with the Human Rights Act she has ruled that representatives from non-religious belief systems (such as Humanism) may be appointed to Group A.
- 2. The 2017 revised GCSE specification for Religious Studies from WJEC includes the study of secular as well as religious beliefs and this will be assessed in the examination. The specification states:
 - The specification will develop learners' knowledge and understanding of religions and non-religious beliefs, such as atheism and humanism
 - All candidates must also consider non-religious beliefs, such as those held by Humanists and Atheists (this will be explicitly assessed in the (d) questions in the Life and Death theme).
- 3. There is acceptance in the current agreed syllabuses in Wales that part of the RE skill of engaging with fundamental questions should give pupils opportunities to "interrogate a range of evidence from religious and non religious sources… in order to consider issues raised"

It is therefore the opinion of the SACRE committee that a Humanist representative could add value to the debate and discussions that take place in SACRE.
