B BACKGROUND

WG Consultation on Religion Values and Ethics

As part of the broader reforms contained within the Curriculum for Wales, the Welsh Government consulted on making changes to the legislative framework that surrounds RVE. The Welsh Government, based on current case law, intend that the teaching of RVE must be pluralistic in nature. These changes make explicit what the law already requires – the pluralistic teaching of RE in accordance with the European Convention on Human Rights. In addition, Welsh Government propose making new provision requiring the local authority, SACRE and ASC to have regard to guidance issued by the Welsh Ministers in relation to the curriculum in developing and adopting an agreed syllabus. The consultation also set out the legislative changes in relation to different types of schools within Wales and how they should use the locally agreed syllabi in the new curriculum arrangements. Within the consultation document Welsh Government stated that “schools will continue to need to assure themselves that their RVE provision satisfies the pluralistic requirement created by human rights legislation and SACRES, ASCs and Local Authorities will continue to need to assure that any agreed syllabus their develop and then adopt also meets these requirements.”
