Financial Summary

- 1.3 Please see comments from Chief Financial Officer below.

Risks

- 1.4 If proper work programming procedures are not put in place, the organisation and prioritisation of the work programme is put at risk. The work of the Audit Committee could become disjointed from the work of the rest of the Council, which could undermine the positive contribution to service improvement.

The specific risks associated with individual topics on the work programme will need to be addressed as part of the Committees investigations.

Links to Council Policies and Priorities

2. Having proper work programming procedures in place ensures that the work of the Audit Committee makes a positive impact upon the Council's delivery of services, contributes to the delivery of corporate objectives, and ensures that work can be undertaken in a timely and well-planned manner.

Options Considered / Available; Preferred Choice and Reasons

3. The Committee is asked to endorse the proposed work programme for the current year, and note the topics due to be considered at the Committee's next meeting.

Comments of Monitoring Officer

4. I have no comments, as there are no legal implications.

Comments of Chief Financial Officer

5. There will be financial consequences for some of the reviews undertaken. These will be commented upon as the reports are presented. The preparing and monitoring of the work programme is done by existing staff for which budget provision is available.

Staffing Implications: Comments of the Head of People and Transformation

6. There are no staffing implications within this report. Any staffing implications of the reviews in the work programme will need to be addressed in individual reports.
